-Applicants staying in Japan with status of temporary visitor etc.

*If you are studying or working in Japan with a visa to be expired before enrollment (not to be renewed) when applying, you are a "Abroad Applicant".

Notes:

- ① The Prescribed Forms can be downloaded and printed out from our website:
URL <https://istc.doshisha.ac.jp/istc/en/admission/admission.html>
Submission documents must be typed (other than applicant's signature and date) or filled out with a black or blue ink ballpoint pen. Documents completed in pencil and erasable pen will not be accepted. Do not use correction tape or correction fluid.
- ② Fill out the forms in English or Japanese.
- ③ A notarized copy of an original document is not considered equivalent to the original.
- ④ Application document such as Certificates of Graduation (Completion) or Official Transcripts provided in a language other than Japanese or English must be accompanied by a Japanese or English translation notarized by a diplomatic mission in Japan, such as a consulate or embassy, to certify that the translation of the document is faithful to the original. Diplomatic missions of some countries and regions in Japan do not certify any translation of issued documents. In that case, translation must be notarized in home country. Be sure to prepare well in advance. If a translation issued by a diplomatic mission is unavailable, a translation by the applicant's university or applicant's Japanese language school is acceptable, in such a case, the translation must be affixed with an official seal by the university or Japanese language school.

We cannot accept the translation made by a translation company.

- ⑤ Documents submitted will generally not be returned to the applicant, however, document(s) that cannot be reissued, such as a diploma, may be returned. For those who would like to have some of the original documents submitted to be returned, there are two ways to request the return of their documents.

< By Mail >

Enclose a request for returning original document in the application packet, indicating which document(s) they wish to have returned as well as their name, address and their phone number to which the document should be returned. It may take up to one month after the submission deadline for the document to be returned to their address.

< In Person >

If they wish their document(s) to be returned immediately, they are required to visit Doshisha University with their document at the following location during the period specified below:

Section for International Admissions, Office of International Students, International Center, Doshisha University (Fusokan 2F, Imadegawa Campus)

For April 2025 Entry: August 21, 2024 — September 9, 2024

For September 2025 Entry: January 22, 2025 — February 10, 2025

Office Hours: 9:00 – 11:30, 12:30 – 17:00 (Japan Time)

Closed on Saturdays, Sundays, and National Holidays

- ⑥ Applicants should note that the University will not accept inadequately completed application documents. Before submitting their documents, double check them using the "List of Required Documents". Be sure to enclose the "List of Required Documents" as well, after filling it out.

- ⑦ Any changes or retractions of the contents in the application documents will not be allowed, after the application has been accepted.

IV. Screening Process

The admission decision will be made by comprehensive consideration of application materials. The applicant may be requested to submit additional documents if necessary. An interview over the internet may be held or a question-and-answer email may be sent to the applicant's email address provided on the application form. Be sure to check the email account so as not to miss the notification.

V. Notification of the Results

The result of the selection will be sent out to both successful and unsuccessful applicants by express mail on November 28, 2024 (for April 2025 entry) and May 23, 2025 (for September 2025 entry) (It may take several days to be delivered.). For the successful applicants, guidance for Initial Registration Procedures will be enclosed in the notification packet. Applicants will not be notified of the results through the University's notice board or by inquiry on the phone.

*The University shall not be liable for any circumstances incurred in the course of delivery of the result, including, but not limited to, loss of mail and compromise of personal information.

Section B: Registration Procedures for Successful Applicants

VI. Initial Registration Procedures

Complete the following registration procedures by the deadline. Please refer to the instruction for Initial Registration Procedures enclosed in the "Notification of Acceptance" for details. Admission will be denied if the registration procedures are not completed by the deadline.

Payment of Initial Registration Fee

Applicants residing in Japan (*except Abroad Applicants)

Entry	Payment Period
April 2025	February 6, 2025 — March 13, 2025
September 2025	August 11, 2025 — August 27, 2025

(1) Method of Payment:

Please make telegraphic transfer from a bank counter by using the payment slip for remittance to Doshisha University.

(2) Amount of Payment:

Prescribed amount of Initial Registration Fee must be paid. Details will be in the instructions for Initial Registration Procedures.

*As soon as the University has confirmed the receipt of the fee, an “Admission Certificate” will be sent to the applicant.

Applicants residing outside Japan (*including Abroad Applicants)

Successful applicants will be required to complete the Initial Registration Procedures as below. These procedures may change. Please follow the guidance provided in the “Notification of Acceptance and Initial Registration Procedures” to be sent to successful applicants.

There will be three steps for the initial registration. In these steps, payment of fees must be done from a bank counter. Details for method of payment and amount of payment will be given in the instructions for Initial Registration Procedures.

Entry	Payment Deadline [Step 1 – ①]/ Submission Deadline [Step 1 – ②]
April 2025	December 12, 2024
September 2025	June 17, 2025

Entry	Payment Deadline [Step 2]
April 2025	January 16, 2025
September 2025	July 10, 2025

[Step 1]

- ① Applicants must pay the Registration Fee by the deadline.

*Upon enrollment, the Registration Fee will be referred to as the Admission Fee.

- ② Applicants are also required to submit all the necessary documents to obtain a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for a “Student” resident status in Japan (such as application form and materials concerning the payment of expenses for the stay in Japan). Please send those documents to the Office of International Students, International Center by the deadline.

[Step 2]

After confirming the payment of a Registration Fee and the documents for COE [Step 1], applicants will be informed about the payment of the remaining amount of the Initial Registration Fee by the deadline around late December (for April 2025 entry) or late June (for September 2025 entry). Applicants should pay the required amount, which is the Initial Registration Fee minus the Registration Fee paid in [Step 1].

As soon as the University has confirmed the receipt of the fee, the University will apply by proxy for the COE to the Ministry of Justice.

[Step 3]

After the COE is issued, it will be sent to the applicants together with the Admission Certificate. Upon receiving the COE and the Admission Certificate, the applicants must apply for a “Student” visa by bringing the COE and the Admission Certificate to the Japanese Embassy or the Japanese Consulate in his/her home country.

*In certain cases, this application process may need to be modified depending on changes in the Japanese Immigration Office regulations. The University will notify successful applicants of any changes.

*Applicants must enter Japan with a valid “Student” visa on their passports unless they hold Japanese citizenship. Applicants who do not have a “Student” visa may have to leave Japan and then re-apply for a “Student” visa at the Japanese Embassy or Japanese Consulate.

Notes:

If applicants overpaid the transaction charge, etc. when paying Initial Registration Fee by overseas remittance, the excess amount will be applied to the next semester’s University Fee.

Once received, the Admission Fee (equivalent to the Registration Fee) will not be refunded under any circumstances. Only in the case the applicant goes through the prescribed cancellation procedure (submission of cancellation letter and return of the admission certificate) by the deadline stated below, the amount after deduction of the Admission Fee from the Initial Registration Fee will be refunded to the applicant.

Entry	Cancellation Deadline
April 2025	Postmarked: Monday, March 31, 2025 when sending by post
September 2025	Postmarked: Saturday, September 20, 2025 when sending by post

Those who have already received the “Certificate of Eligibility” and “Admission Certificate” must return these to the Office of International Students along with the prescribed cancellation procedure. For details, refer to the guidance for Initial Registration Procedures.

If the sponsor's name appeared on the necessary documents is written in English, please submit a copy of passport or ID card of the sponsor.

If your acquaintance or a friend becomes your second sponsor:

Additional documents for the second sponsor are required. An explanatory note produced by the second sponsor mentioning the relationship with the applicant and a picture taken together as well as a copy of the passport or ID card of the sponsor must be submitted.

※An acquaintance or a friend can be chosen as the second sponsor to supply a portion of amount which the first sponsor cannot cover. Please note that a family member or a relative should be the first sponsor of the applicant.

(b) Applicant supplies the funds by him/herself:

- ① Bank Account Balance Statement (Bank Certificate) in the applicant's name (the balance statement should show sufficient funds to cover the University Fees for one year and a minimum of ¥100,000 x 12 months to cover living expenses. It should be issued by a bank which is able to transfer the funds to Japan in Japanese yen).
- ② Certificate of Employment (or Verification of Employment) of the applicant
- ③ Certificate of Annual Income (or a Tax Certificate indicating the applicant's total income for the previous year) of the applicant

(c) A sponsor residing in Japan supplies the funds:

- ① Statement of Financial Support (Prescribed Form) filled out by the sponsor
- ② Tax Certificate indicating the sponsor's total income for the previous year (one of the following: Withholding Tax Slip, (copy of) Final Income Tax Return, Residential Tax Return or Income Tax Certificate)
- ③ Document to prove the sponsor's relationship with the applicant if the sponsor is a relative of the applicant (one of the following: Family Register, Birth Certificate, Resident Card or Public Certification of Kinship)

In case that the sponsor is an acquaintance or a friend, the following documents are also required.

- A letter of explanation written by the sponsor regarding the relationship with the applicant
- A picture of the sponsor taken together with the applicant
- A photocopy of the sponsor's passport or ID card

If the necessary amount is to be provided by a scholarship:

Please submit the 'Scholarship Certificate' indicating the amount, duration of the scholarship, and the name of sponsoring foundation or institution.

* If the scholarship cannot cover the necessary amount, submit the documents (a) (b) or (c) above as well.

 Additional documents may be required by the Ministry of Justice.

Notes:

- If you have multiple sponsors, submit the required documents for all of them.
- All the required documents except passport must be the original. We do not accept color copy of the original document or a document downloaded from the internet.
(For passport, please submit not the original passport but a photocopy.)
- All the documents must be written in Japanese or English. If the original document is written in another language, a Japanese or English translation done by a professional translation company must be attached.
- All documents must have been issued within 3 months prior to application.
- If five years or more have passed since you graduated from the last school or institution, submit a resume along with the document 1 to 4. Details will be informed to the successful applicant.

(2) Submit to: The Office of Faculty/Graduate School of Science and Engineering, Doshisha University (Rikagakukan 1F, Kyotanabe Campus)

*Office Hours: 9:00 - 11:30, 12:30 - 17:00 (Japan Standard Time)

(3) Required Documents:

- Certificate of Graduation - required only for those who submitted a Certificate of Expected Graduation at the time of application. If they were at another university or graduate school at the time of application, and did not graduate from or complete that university or graduate school, they must submit the “Certificate of Withdrawal”.
- Certificate of ‘Items Stated in Resident Register’ (Juminhyo Kisai jiko Shomeisho 住民票記載事項証明書), or ‘Certificate of Residence’ (Juminhyo 住民票)
- Written Pledge and Notification of Contact Person (Prescribed Form to be sent to successful applicants):

A contact person must be the applicant's parent or legal guardian in principle (any place of residence accepted). This contact person must be designated to maintain communication with the University during the applicant's absence, and is responsible for delivering messages/information from the University to the student.

Important Notes:

1. Students will be required to hold a “Student” resident status in principle as prescribed in the Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act unless they hold Japanese citizenship. It will not be allowed to stay on short-stay visa.
2. Permission of the COE is granted by the Ministry of Justice. If and when such permission is not granted or unexpected expenses are incurred due to any reason, such as the delay in the issuance of COE, the University takes no responsibility. When the COE application is rejected, the University may deny admission. Also, students who have lost status of residence will be dismissed.
3. When requested by the Japanese Government, governmental offices of other countries involved or foundations in Japan and abroad, overseas institutions having academic exchange agreements with Doshisha University, or if the applicant has been granted a scholarship by any of the above organizations, application documents not prescribed by Doshisha University may be accepted and screened at a time other than the normal schedule.
4. When requested by any of the organizations described above and deemed necessary by Doshisha Graduate Schools, enrollment other than April and September may be approved. Also, with such request and necessity, a special student may be permitted to enroll for a period other than special students’ normal length of enrollment, which is no less than six months and no more than one year in principle with an extension for enrollment for up to one year possible upon screening.
5. Regarding any questions concerning the application, please contact the Section for International Admissions, Office of International Students, International Center (Imadegawa Campus).
6. Admission may be denied if any of the contents of the application form or the submitted documents is not true and correct.
